5/20/98

Scott Wilson
78 Toronot Ave.,
Massapequa, NY 11758

Dear Scott,

Thanks for your 5/17 and the enclosures. I've written Jes Payne, who used to be a friend and who I've not seen in years. He has changed. I guess with the paper's ownership.

Ray was not the assassin and from the offical evidence could not have been so the racism is not relevant.

I'm in chapter 21 of the record I'm making for history on the Posner whitewash with history.

Joesten finally went crazy and what he did on this was crazy-30 years ago.

We are having our trouble but we are making out. Have to leave in a few minutes for Lil's appointment with our dermatologist. We both have trouble walking but we are still getting around.

The guy who started the work comes when he has no other work. I agreed to that. He has started to get the paint off. He went after what was loose.

Hope all of you are doing well.

Thanks and best,

Harold